

- Use a ten frame and have the students place an object (possibly the story character) on the frame as the story is read.
- Use a part-part-whole frame to create word problems, number sentences and classroom discussions regarding the story.
- Have students create their own cumulative picture book.
- Create a class cumulative picture book.
- Make “napping” houses for basic facts.

- Use house for counting on strategies.

