

If you want to try using small groups and stations in your classroom and want a simple-to-follow, step-by-step plan, then this training is for you!

If your team wants to begin immediately using the strategies that have proven to be effective for over 25 years AND work every time, then this training is for you!

If you're an administrator or specialist who knows your faculty would benefit from hands-on training that provides your teachers with simple strategies they can use the next day, then this training is for you!

If your school needs immediate improvement and results in every subject and at every level, then Tabor Top Ten to Begin Stations training is the answer!

Steps for Stations & Beyond

The Tabor Top Ten for Stations will:

- Explore the first ten steps that ensure success in implementing small-group, differentiated instruction in every classroom.
- Provide you with practical ways to build student discourse, engage all learners, and optimize the minutes you have for instruction.
- Give you an opportunity to experience each of the steps while learning about the steps.
 - Teach you how to cultivate a classroom community that manages itself and motivates students to learn.
- Ease you into sophisticating the instruction in your classroom.
- Help you plan for implementing the ten steps beginning the next day!